Peru is that perfect mix of colorful culture, mouth-watering cuisine, and amazing historic sites that will make your 8-day, 7-night adventure for two an experience you'll never forget. From the rugged Andes, to cosmopolitan cities and spectacular cuisine, Peru is one of the hottest, and "hippest" destinations in the world. The two of you will fly to Lima where you'll explore the best of this "City of Kings" on your guided sightseeing excursion. You'll be enchanted by the city's food, art, architecture, museums, unique shops and the beautiful Gaudi-inspired "Love Park." The next day, bring your appetite for your Lima gastronomy tour and cooking class! You'll taste Peru's world-famous cuisine at a city market to sample such fresh fruits and delights as lucuma with its sweet maple-like taste. Then you'll party with the culinary masters who'll teach you to make traditional Peruvian dishes like Lomo Saltado, Ceviche, and homemade Pisco Sour, Peru's classic national cocktail. Next, you'll fly to the colonial city of Cusco, ancient capital of the Inca Empire. Here, at the foot of the Andes, you can relax and explore the city's intriguing shops where you'll find beautiful treasures made from fine Peruvian alpaca wool. Then you'll travel high into the clouds to Machu Picchu, the "Lost City of the Incas." You'll feel like you are walking with the gods as you gaze at the view from this 500-year-old mountaintop citadel. On your final day in Cusco, you'll delight in tasting the world's best chocolates during your Chocolate Workshop at Cusco's ChocoMuseo. You'll learn every aspect of creating Peru's finest confections beginning with roasting cocoa beans, to preparing delicious hot chocolate drinks and making creamy chocolate candy, tasting every step of the way! Your 8-day, 7-night Peruvian adventure includes your roundtrip air, all your in-country flights, deluxe hotel accommodations in Lima and Cusco, your Lima city tour, memorable cooking class, chocolate-making class and your train and tour to Machu Picchu. From sampling some of the world's most exciting cuisine, to exploring ancient and modern treasures, the two of you will remember your adventure in Peru as one of the most thrilling trips of your lives!
